LOCAL INTERAGENCY COORDINATING COUNCIL (LICC)

Working together to provide Information, support and encouragement to families of young children with disabilities.

Who We Are.....

The LICC is a non-profit coalition of community agencies and service providers promoting and assisting improved access to health and developmental services for infants and young children birth to age five with developmental delays or disabilities.

The LICC of Middle Georgia includes the following counties:

- Bibb
- Crawford
- Houston
- Jones
- Peach
- Twiggs
- Wilkinson
- Baldwin
- Hancock
- Jasper
- Monroe
- Putnam
- Washington

Who are the members.....

Membership is composed of parents, public and private service providers, DOE representatives, advocacy groups, Head Start personnel, and other agencies that provide early intervention type services.

The LICC does the majority of its work by committees. These are: Structure, Membership Development, and Nominating.

When and Where.....

The LICC meets bi-monthly during the months of August through May.

Meetings are held at various locations throughout the year.

Purpose and mission.....

The purpose is for professionals and parents working together, to ensure that children and families in need of early intervention services are identified and receive family centered support.

Federal Law mandates comprehensive statewide system of coordinated early intervention services.
